

National Seminar – 28-29 November 2017

Organized by

Department of Drawing & Painting, M.L.& J.N.K.Girls College, Saharanpur in collaboration with Indira Gandhi National Centre for the Arts,
New Delhi

Department of Drawing & Painting, M.L.&J.N.K.Girls College, Saharanpur, is pleased to inform that it is organising a National Seminar on FOLK ARTS & CRAFTS OF DOAB AREA from the 28-29 November 2017 in collaboration with IGNCA, New Delhi.

Doab area is one of the blessed parts of the country where popular traditions, belief systems and arts & crafts are not only well-preserved, but these have also been continuously evolving to remain vibrant and living force for the multitude of village folks.

In the proposed seminar, an attempt shall be made to discover the folk arts and handicrafts of Doab area. These still have the vitality to reconstruct a cogent and coherent cultural mosaic in the context of a wider national and international context. Therefore, the need to explore such identity is not only very timely, but urgent also under the prevailing vitiated environment

It is hoped that the proposed seminar shall provide a platform for the scholars to discuss various aspects of the folk arts and handicrafts of the target area and inspire them to explore new areas of research in the field to establish their relevance in the present scenario.

The Seminar shall encompass following topics for discussion.

- 1. Aesthetics and Folk Creativeness
- 2. Indian Folk in Literature
- 3. The refrains of Folk Music
- 4. Folk Dances
- 5. The Domestic Crafts
- 6. The Market Culture and Folk Handicrafts
